

Members Listing of the Lincoln Lakes Innovation Corporation.

Chairperson, Steve Perry

Steve was raised in Lincoln. He worked as Senior Project Manager for HE Sargent Corp. Upon retirement he moved to Lincoln and resides on the Little Narrows.

Vice Chairperson, Brian Souers

Brian has been a resident of Lincoln for 47 years. Brian founded Treeline and the Maine Land Store, employs 100 people and is currently building a 26 home neighborhood off the Lee Road. Brian is active in business development and multiple charitable organizations.

Board Members;

Scott Smith is owner of FASTCO Corp. He built and grew FASTCO into the business it is today. It started as a local company and now works throughout the east coast. Scott also has been active in many charitable organizations in the Town of Lincoln.

Melissa Pelkey resides in Lincoln and is currently the Administrator of Penobscot Valley Hospital. As Administrator of Penobscot Valley Hospital, she feels the Hospital is an essential asset to the Town of Lincoln. Growth in Employment is seen as a benefit to all service-related business in Lincoln.

Wayne Berry is a resident of Lincoln. He currently works for Northeast Paving as a project Manager. Wayne lends his contracting experience to this board.

Ken Borneman is a resident of Veazie. His primary work experience is as an engineer in Biofuels and alternate energy. Ken was involved in the development of the former Biomass plant in Chester. He has also been the lead engineer on multiple solar projects.

Jon Pottle of Katahdin Law is the legal clerk of the Corporation. He serves as consultant in all legal aspects of the corporation. He has been clerk and legal counsel of the LLIC since its inception.

Glenn Brawn is currently a resident of Howland. Glenn joined the board when he was considering a move to Lincoln. Glenn is a local contractor as such he joined the board to work toward the mill redevelopment. As a current Selectman of Howland, he understands the benefit of job development will have to surrounding communities.

Rachel Anderson is a commercial lending officer at Machias Savings Bank. She brings commercial financial expertise to the board.

Gordon Street is our newly appointed Town Council member on the Board. The board is required to have a Town Councilor appointed to the Board to act a an information resource for the Town Council.

Cathy Moison is a board member that has been on the board as both a Town Councilor and an interested citizen. Cathy moved here upon retirement and has been active in multiple non-profit organizations in Town as well as several Town related committees. She brings her expertise in Business management to the board.